

BYLAW REVIEW PROGRAMME

Prime Minister's Award for Public Sector Excellence Excellence in Regulatory Systems

Time of intense change

Ko te waka o te kotahitanga, he waka ngawari te rere

A waka united glides easily

Focus on people-he tangata, he tangata, he tangata

Integrated Regulatory System

Getting the basics right

Alcohol Ban

Outcome

Reducing alcohol related harm

Empowering youth

People & Culture

Engaging with people perceived as part of the problem

Actions

Innovation within business constraints

Engaging with the social sector

Using Technology with hard to reach audiences

Health and Hygiene

Solid Waste

Outcome
Zero Waste

Trusted external mediator

People & Culture

Actions

Working with key industry stakeholders to disrupt the system

Transparency and certainty for industry

Supporting community action

What next-keep on disrupting the system

*'Systems don't change easily.
Systems try to maintain themselves,
and seek equilibrium.'*

To change a system, you need to shake it up, disrupt the equilibrium...'

