

Improving the Governance of New Zealand – lunchtime lecture series

IPANZ and The Institute of Governance and Policy Studies (IGPS) invite you to a series of lunchtime lectures on Improving the Governance of New Zealand.

The eight lectures will explore some of the significant governance issues currently facing New Zealand's major public institutions and private sector organisations. The aim is to foster debate about how the governance of this country, and the many organisations within it, might be improved.

Free admission. Register online today to secure you spot! www.ipanz.org.nz
